1. The factory buildings are located in Gornja Siska, a suburb of Ljubljana, on the site where the former Siegel and Drug textile factory was situated.
2. The Yugoslav authorities intend to make this enterprise into one of the largest factories in Yugoslavia for the production of heavy and motor industry. Accordingly, all efforts have been directed to the installation of the most modern equipment, with the added goal of insuring production of a wide variety of articles, such as turbines, machine-pumps, propellers, saws, and steel pillars.
3. Currently, 2,000 laborers are employed, and most of the work that can presently be undertaken is conducted in three shifts. In the heavy industry section work is carried out in one shift only.
4. The following are heads of departments:

Eng. Pecar (fnu)	Director of the factory Slovene. Communist Party member.
Eng. Senk (fnu)	Deputy Director. Slovene. Communist Party member.
S. Spolar	Secretary of the Communist Party for the factory, and chief of the Director's offices. Slovene. Communist Party member.
Bozo Braja	Factory Security. Slovene. Communist Party member.
